Living at Glebe House

“ My mum has resided in Glebe House for nearly four years. She has had excellent care throughout that time. The staff treat her with dignity, kindness and patience. I see my mum several times a week and she is always relaxed and contented”

“ Mum has been here for about 18 months, and we are very happy with the care and support that is provided. We feel that Mum is in the best place and is well looked after.”

Set in a peaceful village of Chaldon, near Caterham in Surrey, Glebe House Care Home offers a welcoming environment where high-quality care is delivered with compassion and a strong sense of togetherness. We are proud to provide a home where residents feel comfortable, supported and part of a caring community.

Our team takes time to build genuine relationships with each resident, learning about their life experiences, interests and preferences. This personal understanding enables us to deliver considerate, individualised care that supports wellbeing and independence.

Each day at Glebe House is shaped around enjoyment and fulfilment, from engaging activities and shared moments to carefully prepared meals enjoyed in good company. Everything we do is guided by what matters most to our residents and their families, ensuring Glebe House truly feels like home.

Getting started with Glebe House

Wellbeing at Glebe House

Life at Glebe House is warm, social and full of meaningful activity. We offer daily engagement, seasonal events and plenty of opportunities for residents to stay active and connected. Our staff and residents take pride in our garden and shared spaces, creating a homely environment where everyone feels involved.

Funding for Your Care

We welcome both self-funding residents and those supported by the local authority. If you are funded by the local authority and a top-up fee is required to meet our weekly rate, the local authority will pay us the full cost of care and collect the top-up directly from you.

Outstanding Care

Our experienced, dedicated team are passionate about providing exceptional care for residents and their families. Glebe House is a place where people can truly thrive through personalised support, warmth and compassion.
